LOTS WILL BE SOLD AT PUBLIC

MENCING AT TWO O'CLOCK.

This subdivision is on the high ground immediately opposite the elegant residence and park of Mr. Robert Portner (said to be the finest in the state), who is going to erect a number of handsome houses to accommodate the increasing demand for summer residences.

Manassas is above all malarial influences of the tide-water, and taken throughout the year is perhaps as an agreeable place in which to reside as any vart of the world. Manassas is located at the junction of the main line of the Richmond and Dauville R. R. and the Manassas branch. The train service of the R. and by virtually makes Manassas a subturb of Washington. All trains stop there: the running time from Washington being sixty minutes. Innependent of these advantages Manassas is to be the county seat of Prince William, which was decided by a vote of the people on the 6th of August by a large majority, and which will naturally enhance the value of Manassas property.

Terms: Ten per cent of the purchase money in cash,

AT THE RIVER FRONT.

An enjoyable reception was held last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Mankin, 1004 25th street. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Mankin, who was the recipient of many handsome presents. An interesting episode of the evening was the christening of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Berghausen, sr., Mr. Harry Gladmon standing as sponsor. Among those present were Mrs. Gladmon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Waldsauer, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Diller. Mr. H. Berghausen, jr., Mr. King, Mr. and Mrs. Wackman and many others. An elegant supper was served, after which the guests indulged in danning.

ALBANY, Aug. 31.—Commander-in-chief Palmer of the G. A. R. is about to issue a personal communication to the heads of the state departments explaining more fully the reasons for issuing his order relative to double columns. When seen by your representative Commander Palmer said that it was merely supplementary to his former order and gave further reasons why he decided to have the parade in double columns. "I was prompted," he said, "by feelings of humanity toward the men. We are not as young as we were in '65. Then the 'boys,' full of vigor and youth, could stand an eight hours' march in single column, but

By the circular which was sent out to every post in the country notice was served that such must be sent to the citizens' committee by the 1st of September if there was the intention on the part of any post to come here expecting to get free quarters.

A good many applications have come in and Col. Wright expects to find a place for all, although he sees the possibility of the necessity arising for the committee to secure additional quarters. If in spite of this ample notice posts persist in coming here without giving any notice they can't blame the citizens' committee if they have a hard time to find a place to sleep in.
